MONTEVIDEO, November 3, 1949

MR. AMBASSADOR:

I have the honor to inform Your Excellency—with reference to your Embassy's Memorandum dated July 10, 1947, and to subsequent conversations held on the matter taken up in the said Memorandum—that the Government of the Republic has, by Decree issued today, extended maximum courtesies to citizens of your country who desire to visit Uruguay temporarily, ordering that effective the 10th of the present month they be admitted freely upon presentation of their valid passports and without the need of a consular visa or of any other requirement. I take pleasure in attaching herewith a copy of the said Decree.<sup>1</sup>

Citizens of the United States of America will thus be admitted, on each visit, for the periods of stay provided in the existing regulations for categories of temporary visitors established in sections (a) to (g) of Article 17 of the Decree of February 28, 1947; it is of course understood that the privileges allowed by the new system have been extended without prejudice to the right to reject, or to refuse admission to, the said visitors, a discretionary right which is applied in exceptional cases and the reservation of which is imposed by the existing regulations.
